FOREWORD

With the turning of each page of the AKLAN, forgotten memories of activities and events of the school year are recalled. Fall brought the opening of the school year, football, and rallies. Winter followed, and evening activities were moved indoors as we enjoyed basketball in the new gym and hootenannies with professional entertainment. Spring, crowded with "Annie Get Your Gun," the Musicence, and senior activities, brought us to graduation sooner than anyone had expected.

Dedication...

Mr. Thom instructs a wood shop student in the use of a coping saw.

Each of the hundreds of garments made in clothing courses is carefully inspected by Mrs. Frazier for workmanship and fit.

The 1964 Aklan is dedicated to four members of the Acalanes faculty who, as effective and efficient teachers have brought honor to our school and our community.

The garments fashioned by Mrs. Shirley Frazier's clothing students have long been admired for their taste and workmanship. Besides impressing spectators at the Mother-Daughter Tea, Mrs. Frazier's students have each year won top honors in the Wool Growers' Contest.

Mr. Robert Thom has geared the work of his industrial arts classes to the interest of the students. This factor more than any other, enabled Mr. Thom's students to amaze the community with the skilled craftsmanship of their work.

Auto shop students are always able to turn to Mr. Hollister Kaufman for assistance. Students in auto shop classes have consistently placed in the difficult Plymouth Trouble Shooting

Mr. Stanley Black's home design classes are unique in that in addition to drawings students build scale models of their projects. Not only has their work won awards from the Women's Architectural League and the Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, East Bay, but the blueprints have also been the basis for actual buildings.

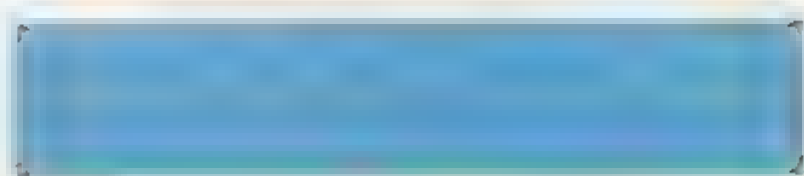

High School is privileged to have these teachers in its faculty, and it is to them that this book is sincerely dedicated.

Mr. Kaufman adjusts some of the equipment used by his auto shop classes.

Mr. Black's Mechanical Drawing students quickly learn the importance of accuracy in their work.

DEAN OF GIRLS

The Acalanes High School Activities Calendar bulges with opportunities. There were thirty-six Fridays this school year. Did you enjoy the football, basketball, baseball games? The track and swim meets? The Senior Play, Christmas Program, Operetta, Music and the dances? Did you take part in club or class activities, committees, or assemblies, thereby earning yourself an 'A' in citizenship while doing a service for others? If you answer, 'Yes,' to any part of these questions you have increased your enjoyment of Fall, Winter, and Spring at Acalanes and gained a valuable experience. If not—you missed an opportunity!

Vera M. Richardson

DEAN OF BOYS

At Acalanes we strive for an educational experience that will prepare students to assume their places in society. The activity program is one important part of the student's educational experience. Through this program a student can experience such learned reactions as: working with others; democratic practice and procedures; group organization; accepting responsibility; following directions; completing assigned tasks; honesty and integrity.

We know that students looking back on their high school tenure remember fondly their experiences in the activity program. We strongly urge everyone to take advantage of this opportunity while in high school.

Senior History

On June 11, graduation brought an end to the experiences of the Class of '64 at Acalanes. Though the seniors looked forward to new opportunities they also remembered the four years that they spent here.

They entered high school as eager and enthusiastic freshmen, many of them subdued by a somewhat awesome respect for the upperclassmen. They received an introduction to Acalanes and a sense of confidence at the traditional Frosh Orientation Day. It was not long before the Class of '64 settled down to the usual high school life of studies, government and activities. They elected Bill McHale president, Tom Alexander vice-president, Marcy Crockett secretary, Julie Tucker treasurer, and Carolyn Rossi social secretary. Later in the year they elected a whole new slate of officers. Their Frosh Frolic,

'Spring Fever' was, happily, a success. They learned about two-hour finals and new grading systems, and they greeted the summer with feelings of both relief and accomplishment.

The Class of '64 returned in September as veterans of Acalanes. The sophomores proudly sponsored an orientation for the freshmen. This year they needed only one group of officers: Mike Hallock, president; Frank Colwell, vice-president; Julie Alves, secretary; Janet Hicks, treasurer; and Nancy Hopper, social secretary. They continued their sociasuccess with the memorable dance, the "Sophomore Side Show" and astonished the Seniors by winning the homecoming float contest.

Working under officers Mark Silphant, Dick Van

Loben Sels, Virginia Stone, Carolyn Shidler, and Kathy Maraglia, the Senior Class of '64 enjoyed a year that was in many ways outstanding. They earned far more money for senior activities than any previous class, generously gave part of it to the yearbook, and set aside another portion for their senior gift. During football season, they demonstrated their enthusiasm by building the prize-winning float Three Coins In A Fountain for homecoming. In basketball they helped the team on to a showing equal to the previous years. They selected a color scheme for their senior activities, and in May they all enjoyed the banquet, Red Sails In The Sunset. Then came the lovely Senior Ball, Rhapsody In Blue. Graduation night was highlighted by "Candlelight and Gold" the Senior All-Night.

The student body officers worked as a unit to carry out their duties. They held regular meetings to plan the activities of the student body and attended the quarterly Foothill Inter school Council meetings. In addition, they fulfilled the responsibilities which their individual offices entailed. President Mike Hallock was in charge of student body activities and the general welfare of the student body. Nick McConaughy, our vice-president, planned and presided over the assemblies. As chief justice Rich Smith worked hard to organize and supervise student control. Secretary Janet Hicks kept the student body informed of government activities. Pam Platt supervised all social activities, and Treasurer Bev Davis managed the student body funds. Sonja Neblett organized the many extracurricular activities and Eric Neighbor, our Head For Leader kept the student body informed through all the student body activities.

Under the system initiated in 1962, new Rally Committee members were selected at the beginning of each athletic season. A general election was held by an assembly of the members of the Rally Committee, and these individuals served for the entire year, with the advisor, Mr. Whyte. President Schrapp presided at all meetings and coordinated all Rally activities. As vice-president, Mary, was in charge of all rallies. Secretary Mary was in charge of the Rally Committee. Aklan Staff

Language of the Akar has special memories for members of the organization, writing, proof-reading and editing were all done by the staff. Hopefully for the future the staff spent hours soliciting ads to finance the book. School clubs and the senior class generously donated their funds towards meeting the cost of producing the year's Akar.

... of the Akian was completely revised. The chronological arrangement enabled the reader to follow the Akian with each season of the school year organized

At time since 1955, more pages were added to the book. Mr. Dessler, in his first year as Akron advisor, in full pride and understanding in the work done. Although he had no previous experience except book staff in high school, Mr. Dessler attacked his mental task with vigor and enthusiasm that resulted in a high quality yearbook.

A world entirely different from the average classroom best described the "Acalane Blueprint" headquarters. Everywhere one was met by busy newspapermen and women following their varied jobs. Putting out the Blueprint was just its distribution to students every three weeks. Behind this final step were such tasks as gathering the news and story write-ups by Journalism I students, layouts costing about $175.00 reaching the printer's hands. The excitement of seeing the Blueprint was a reward for the staff. The staff was also responsible for the Don Literary Magazine which this year was entitled "Who's Who in the Acalanes Zoo." A world of activity was going on in the room. One never knew from the moment what new crisis would arise. Seventh period in room 108 could best be described as "occasionally organized chaos."

American Field Service

I came to the United States to widen my views, exchange ideas and learn to know the country not as a tourist but from day to-day living. My expectations turned out to be realities somewhat different from the ones I expected, but I have achieved even more than I had hoped. The adjustments were more difficult and the emotional stress harder than I had thought they would be. Days came when I felt that I had misunderstood, and been misunderstood by, everybody. Because of these difficulties, however, I have grown and learned even more.

I have found that I have been able to broaden my knowledge not only through Americans, but Brazilians, Australians, Germans, Indians, and people of many other nationalities. I hope to be able to use my experiences in furthering international relations in the future.

Above all, the daily personal relations will remain strongest in my memory when I go home; how I cried with you on some days and laughed with you on many others. I have made friends I shall never forget. Thank you all for the most instructive, interesting, and wonderful year I have ever had.

Christina Une
Sweden

Consider myself a very lucky boy for having the opportunity to spend this year in Acalane. In this year I learned much more than in other years of my life. By meeting people and living with a new family, by going to a different school I now understand more what the problems of the world are. Never before have people given such importance to my ideas. Now I have ways to express my opinions. In our schools teachers look at us only as students; here in the United States the relationship between students and teachers is much bigger, and the students have a greater influence on the running of the school. I will never forget this year. I learned what democracy is, and I hope when I go back to Brazil I can use part of my experience to develop a little more my country. I would like to say thank you to all, because without you American my experience could not have been complete.

Edgar de Gama Camara

Folk Craze

Sing me a song
Sing it soft and low
Sing it for your baby
And then I'll have to go

Rooted deep in man's desire to express himself, folksinging has always been an integral part of mankind. Traditional folk music has always attracted those who feel they have something to say and those who simply want to be entertained.

The students of Academes adopted folk music immediately not to glorify but to enjoy themselves. Groups of amateur singers organized hootenannies to exchange songs and guitar techniques. Every student was exposed to both ethnic and commercial strains of folk music during lunch. The more dedicated folk enthusiasts attempted to lure new blood to the mustering folk 'craze' by playing folk music over the P.A. system. Sing-alongs disrupted placid classes as folk music finally overcame the barriers surrounding studying.

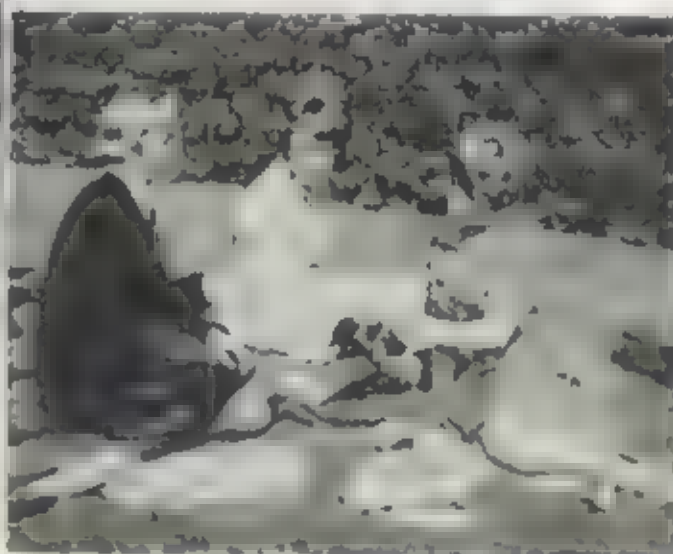

8 McHale brought his guitar to school for lunchtime entertainment.

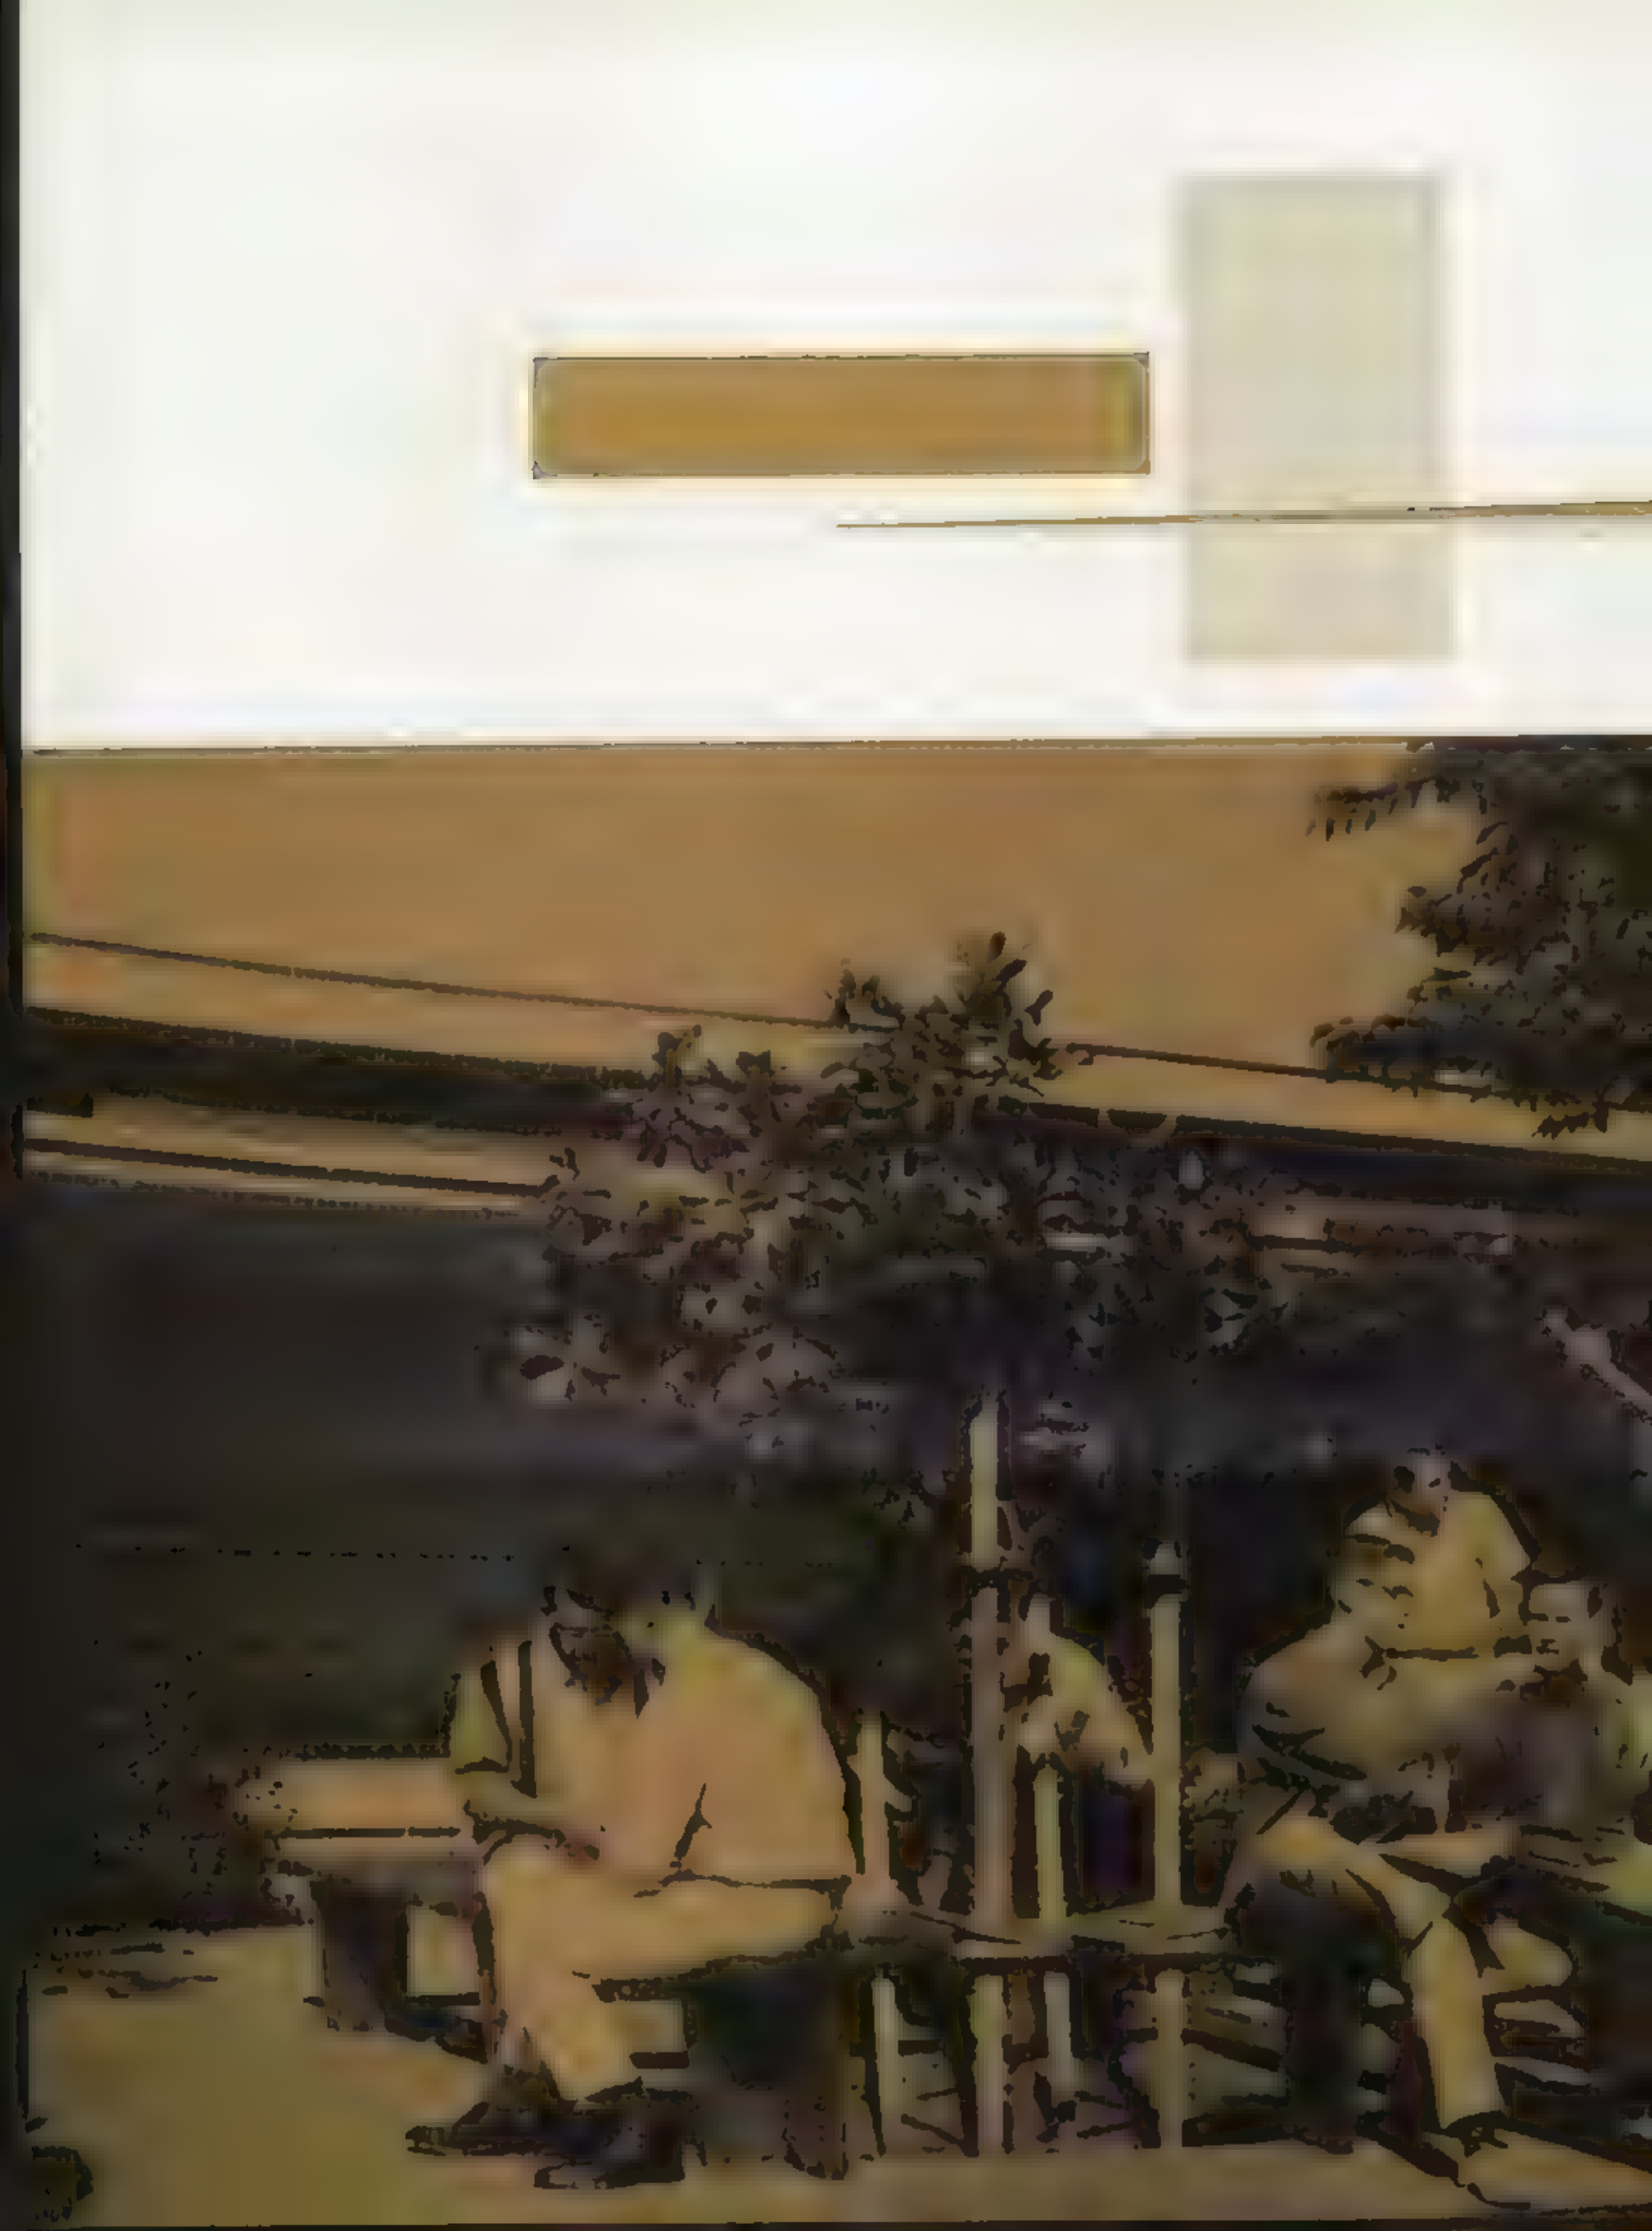

John Paul is one of the many students who are interested in playing the guitar.

Jenny, Cheryl, and Cheryl earned the wood to back songs done by Peter, Paul and Mary.

A group of students gathered on the lawn and sang "Where Have All The Flowers Gone?"

1. H_2O is a polar molecule. The oxygen atom is more electronegative than the hydrogen atoms, so it pulls the shared electrons closer to itself. This creates a partial negative charge (δ^-) on the oxygen and partial positive charges (δ^+) on the hydrogens.

2. H_2O has a bent molecular geometry. The oxygen atom has two lone pairs of electrons, which repel the $\text{O}-\text{H}$ bonds, resulting in a bond angle of approximately 104.5° .

3. The combination of polarity and bent shape results in a net dipole moment. The individual bond dipoles do not cancel out, and the lone pairs on oxygen contribute to the overall dipole.

4. This net dipole moment is what makes water a polar molecule, allowing it to form hydrogen bonds with other water molecules.

Annie, Get Your Gun

OPERETTA

When it opened in 1946, Annie, Get Your Gun was the most successful musical in Broadway history. It ran for 1,212 performances, a record at the time. The show was written by Howard Lindsay and Norman Krasna, with music by Irving Berlin. It starred Betty Hutton as Annie Oakley and Danny Kaye as Fanny Brice. The show was a huge success, both critically and financially.

The Dons basketball team won the league title for the second straight year. After a slow start in the first quarter, the Dons ran off three straight quarters with a 20-4 lead. In the fourth quarter, the Dons were held to a 12-10 deficit by the Bulldogs, the team that had defeated Miramonte and Piedmont. Although the services of 6' 7" center Greg Maloney were crucial, the team went on to win the championship over Las Lomas and San Ramon.

In the final game of the season, the Dons lost once again to the Hayward Warriors. Although they hit early for a quick 20-4 lead, the Dons slowly lost ground. Finally Hayward took the lead for the first time in the game at the beginning of the fourth quarter and quickly pulled away to a twelve point victory.

The key to the Dons' league win was teamwork. Defensively using a tough zone defense, the Dons continually forced opposing teams into errors resulting in quick Acalanes baskets. Next year should see much of the same action. With a total of six returning varsity squad members, the Dons will have an excellent chance to take the title for the third year in a row.

New Gym

The new gymnasium is a two-story building with a large open space on the first floor and a smaller room on the second floor. It is located on the corner of the main building and is surrounded by a concrete walkway. The building has a modern design with large windows and a flat roof. The interior is currently under construction, with scaffolding visible through the open spaces. The gymnasium is expected to be completed by the end of the year and will provide a new facility for the school's sports and physical education programs.

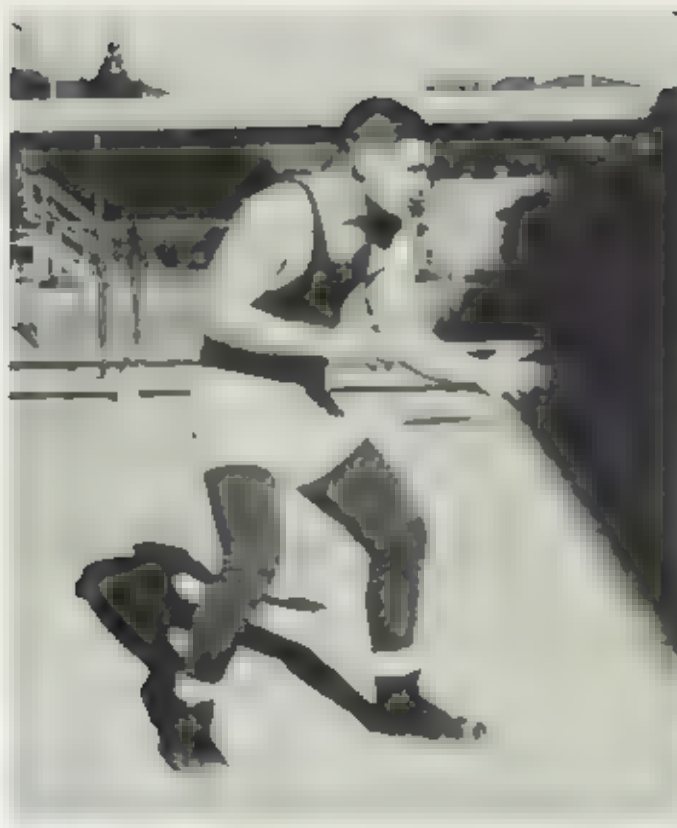

Wrestling

This year's wrestling team went through an undefeated league season. The only loss in any of the dual meets was to Pleasant Hill. The Don's demonstrated superiority over many tough teams, including Miramonte, Hayward and College Park. Coach Erwin Mattson was particularly pleased with the success of the team, as it was his sixth title in seven years. Newcomer [Name] stepped greatly to the forefront. Freshmen Andy Hauskens and Randy Knudsen were regular winners. Junior [Name] won the 170-lb. [Name] won the 127 and 133 lb. weight classes, respectively. Dave [Name] captured the [Name]. Rick Underwood went on to win four [Name] at the State meet.

The Dons should have the following as a next year. In addition to Hauskens and Knudson, Bob Trammell, a Washington State State College Toller and Mike Pitts should form the nucleus of a strong squad.

Victory Celebration

The year's championship varsity wrestling and basketball teams, the yell leaders and pompon girls gathered for a victory celebration. The celebration, held in the cafe, was attended by more than two hundred students. The celebration began at seven o'clock and continued until nine o'clock. Coaches, Mr. Mattson and Mr. Barnett, and their wives, Mrs. Mattson and Mrs. Barnett, were also present. A large crowd of students gathered outside the cafe to watch the celebration. After the presentation of the trophies, the students went to the gymnasium for a dance.

On February 6, the Actor's Workshop of San Francisco presented "Tragedies Through the Ages" to the Acalanes student body. Scenes from three tragedies were chosen as representative of drama from the last 2 000 years. Antigone, part of a trilogy by Sophocles, was the first tragedy acted. The second, The Sacrifice of Isaac, was taken from the Bible. The third, Billy Budd, the only modern tragedy presented showed that good does not always transcend evil.

Unbeatable in the league play, the Astoria tennis team, under Coach Smith, went on to complete a winning season. Among the early season matches won by the Dons was a 7-0 sweep against Vale. The Dons also defeated San Rafael and Astoria in practice matches.

Two freshmen, Rick Goggin and Jeff Borowiak, numbers one and two, led the way for the team by winning almost all of their matches. Jim Ingham, Mike Seaman, Jim McLennan and Bruce Neighbor played well to give the team needed quality. Adding only three players, the team may be even stronger in 1965.

Acaalanes—74 1/2	Del Valle—47
Acaalanes—100 1/2	Alhambra—21

The Acaalanes track team, lacking any real superstars, relied on depth to be a successful dual meet team. Mr. Eaton, coach of the team, watched his boys finish a fine season, coming in second to Piedmont.

One highlight of the season was a 63-59 edging of Miramonte. The meet was decided by the final event of the day, the 880-yard relay. The Dons scored a record total of 100 1/2 points while smothering Alhambra in another dual meet.

Seniors comprised a major portion of this year's squad. Consistent winners in the high and low hurdles, respectively, were Grove Hummert and Randy Angella. Barry Breckling not only ran the hurdles but also broke the school record for the high jump. The Dons were strong in the dashes and middle distance events with Mike Hallock, Phil Smith, and Mark Siliphant placing high in those events. The Dons' cleanup event, the 880-yard relay, composed of Phil Smith, Mike Hallock, John Nolan, and Grove Hummert usually wound up the meets with a win, for it was one of the best in the county.

Grove Hummert and Barry Becking ran first and second in the high hurdles.

Rich Pugs was out in front in the B high hurdles.

Barry Becking set a new school record in the high jump.

Fred Seely took second place in the high jump against De Valle.

Golf

The Acalanes golf team was a strong group composed, for the most part, of lower classmen. Dave Shank, Rick Cartmill and Jim Clapp were three sophomores who showed much promise for the year to come. Dick Lee and Don Pickens, both juniors, developed greatly through the year to bolster the squad. The team this year was led by senior Mike Seaman and coached by Mr. Widmer.

Varsity Swimming

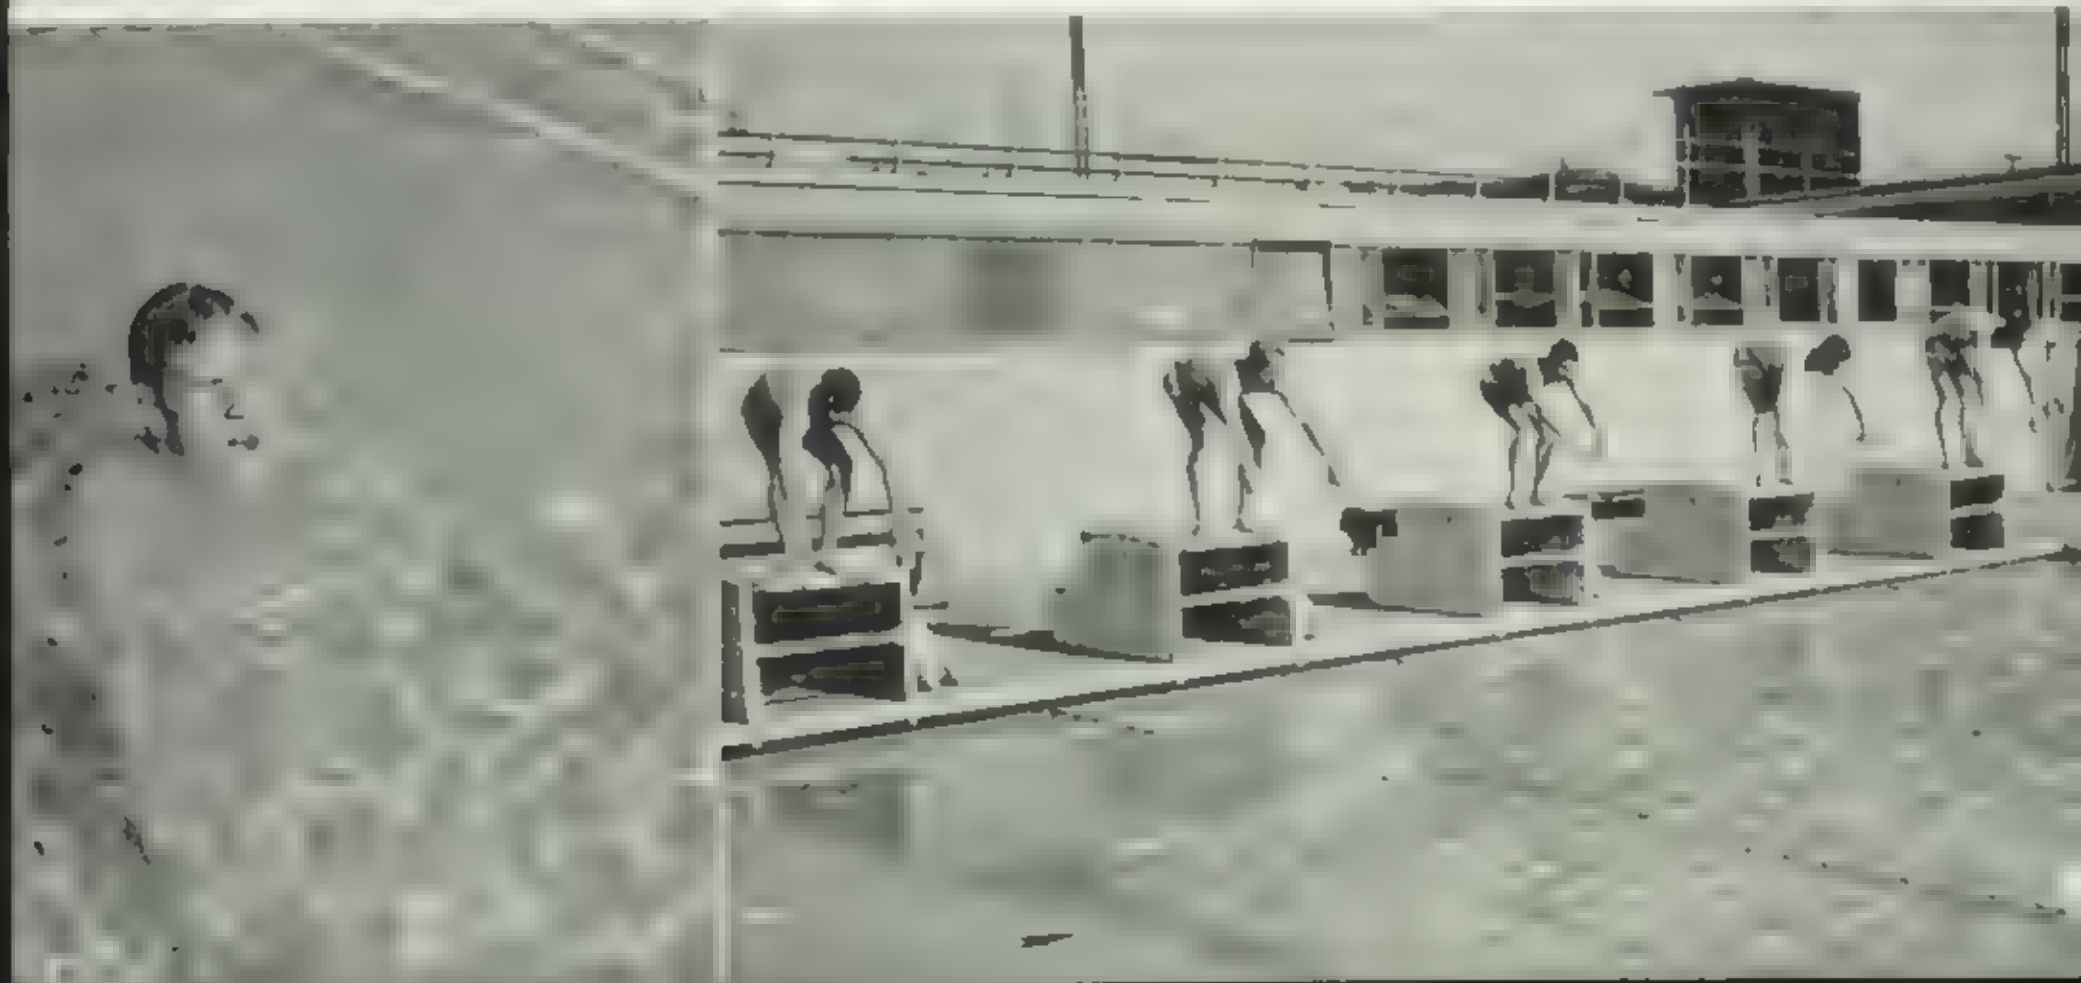

This year one of the strongest Spring sports was swimming. Having tied for the F.A.L. championship last year, the varsity again appeared to be in the thick of the title race. The varsity led the League after having won its first four meets. Toughest competition for the Dons came from last years co-champions Las Lomas and Miramonte. With hard work and a co-ordinated team effort, the Dons had a successful season.

"B" Swimming

This year the Acalanes 'B' swimming team, coached by Mr. Dobbins, began the season with a very good chance of winning the championship. Their first place in the league relays gave them an admirable starting record. Many swimmers returning from last year's team, which placed second in the league, gave the 'B's' an extra boost. Two outstanding boys from this group were Mark Cheney, a freestyler, and Doug Johnston, an individual medlyist. Even at the beginning of the season Coach Dobbins optimistically planned on gaining the top spot in the league.

Successful coaching is a team effort. Acalanes is fortunate in having coaches who are not only interested in winning, but who are also interested in teaching the principles of good sportsmanship.

Coaching, however, is more than one man. Although a head coach has primary responsibilities, assistant coaches are a necessary component of any team's success. This year's success would not have been possible without the efforts of assistant coaches Mr. Thurling, and Mr. Warren.

GAA

Under the supervision of Miss Howel, G.A.A. offered girls a diversity of sport activities. In the fall, girls enjoyed the after-school basketball games. Indoor sports such as tumbling, prevailed in the winter. New equipment and an increased number of tennis courts enabled girls to participate in archery and tennis in the spring.

Block "A"

Athletes at Aca-lanes this year took the Block "A" Society a vigorous, hard-working club. Club advisor Mr. W. Waterman and Mr. J. Dettmer worked hard to make the club a more exclusive organization and to give the members more recognition in everyday school life. A new jacket was adopted by the Block "A" Society to eventually take the place of the letter sweater. Members felt that if jackets were used instead of sweaters, they could be used after the letter winners left Aca-lanes.

Early in the school year, the club went on its annual field trip. Each year the club travels to a different college to investigate the athletic facilities and the academic qualifications of the near-by schools. This year the club spent a day at Stanford University in Palo Alto.

Ending the year, the letter winners and the club members attended an Awards Banquet at which outstanding athletes in a variety of sports were honored.

Farewell

It is difficult to say good-bye to a teacher who, after nineteen years, is leaving Alamos. It is hard to say farewell to one who has spent so much of her time with us. We will long remember her for her strict grading system, her strict wit, and all she has taught us. It is not enough to say good-bye. And so, Miss Ochoa, we can only say THANK YOU.

In Memoriam

JOHN R. SIMON

June 17, 1948 - December 1, 1963

a pause . . .
we turn and take a backward glance at our year past.

we behold . . .
a profusion of memories.
the record has been written.
we are proud
and we are glad that our fortunes let us walk
this way
in fall
in winter and in spring.
